

SOMETHING YOU BEAUTY STUDIO

Thank you so much for your interest in working with Something You! We are a Bridal Beauty Company in the Philadelphia area. After many years in business, we have grown into a full service salon that helps our brides to prepare their hair, skin, brows, & lashes for the big day.

In addition to bridal beauty, we've created a beautiful and relaxing space on the Main Line for clients to come and experience our expertise behind the chair and esthetician bed. We also have a full bridal suite for parties to get ready in our space if they choose.

In this document, you'll learn how working for Something You goes above and beyond to make sure your experience with us is stress free, creative, and fun!

Something You goes above and beyond to make sure all of the admin work and back and forth with brides is taken care of for you. Your job is to show up, hang out with your clients, do gorgeous work, clean up and go home.

For every booking, you'll be provided with a detailed schedule with appointment times based on your own personal timing. You'll always know exactly how many services you have scheduled and how much money you'll make before the wedding.

TEAM WORK

We have created a unique culture for a group of independent contractors. We all love each other at work and outside of it. We hang out together, have play dates with our kids, and text each other regularly. We have meals together, spa days, and celebrate each other's accomplishments.

Everyone on the team is extremely supportive of each other. If someone is running behind, our artists jump in to help with touch ups, final sprays, or anything else you may need.

It really is a special group to work with and we all look forward to being together each weekend.
